

Family Mediation Training

Autumn 2018

Family Mediation NI is the lead service provider and training organisation for family mediation within the Voluntary Sector in Northern Ireland. We are inviting eligible candidates to apply to enter this comprehensive training route to accreditation as a Family Mediator recognised in the UK and in Ireland.

Stage One

The first step to becoming an accredited mediator who may work in a Family Mediation setting is to successfully complete the Foundation Training Programme (FTP). Note: FMNI offers a limited number of places on the programme each year. FMNI is approved by both The College of Mediators (UK) and The Mediators' Institute of Ireland (MII) to deliver a programme comprised of both generic mediation training and a specialist element for working with separating couples.

FMNI is offering the twelve day FTP this Autumn over six two-day modules in Belfast.

COST: £1900 – includes all training materials and catering.

DATES: 19 & 20 Oct 2018, 9 & 10 Nov 2018, 30 Nov & 1 Dec 2018, 11 & 12 Jan 2019, 1 & 2 Feb 2019, 22 & 23 Feb 2019

Stage Two & Three

Becoming an effective mediator takes more than a set of skills learned during training: it also requires practical experience, self-awareness and ongoing support. Stage Two is an assessed Training Placement involving co-working with an experienced mediator for a minimum of 10-15 hours. Stage Three involves ongoing casework and the completion of a Practice Portfolio which is independently assessed.

FMNI offers Stage Two Training Placements over each year to those who have successfully completed Stage One. Candidates can also organise their own Training Placement with another organisation with the option of the required assessment being provided by FMNI.

Stage Three: FMNI uses a Panel of Trained Mediators to deliver its service across Northern Ireland and from time to time invites new members to apply to join its Panel. Panel members can then use their casework to complete their Portfolio.
